To: City of Belleville – Building Section – Engineering and Development Services

Re: _____
(Civic Address or Legal Property Description)

I _____
(Owner or Authorized Agent)

understand and acknowledge the following:

- that the building permit is to be printed and posted at all times in a conspicuous place on the property
- that the drawings and specifications which formed the basis for permit issuance and which have been stamped by the City of Belleville Building Section are to be printed and kept on site at all times
- that the City of Belleville Building Inspector indicated on the building permit is to be contacted by the site supervisor or other person in charge of construction to arrange for all of the inspections listed below and that notice of up to 2 business days after the date of request may be required
- that the Building Inspector may at their discretion refuse to do an inspection if the site is determined to be unsafe or safe access to the inspection areas is not provided and, that the inspection will need to be rebooked for a different date once safety concerns have been resolved
- that not requesting inspections or covering or enclosing work without inspection may result in orders being issued against the project

Drawings bearing the red 'City of Belleville' permit information stamp are to be printed and available on site for use during inspections. Inspections may not be completed if this set of drawings is not available.

All of the listed inspections may not apply to the specific project in this application submission. Each permit will receive a project specific list of inspections upon receipt of the issued permit.
